Youth Exchange in Bauska, Latvia. Date: 30 of July- 06 of August 2022

Target group:

Youngsters aged 13- 17 years representing partner organizations from 3 countries (Latvia, Georgia and Italy). Group size 36 participants: 10 participants per country + 2 team leaders (18- no age limit) from each country.

Our aim is to promote tolerance, pluralism and respect, exchange 'best practice' experiences of multicultural societies and encourage cross-border cooperation.

Our goals are:

1. Cross-cultural learning and dialogue between the participants from different countries, with a view to promoting mutual understanding and tolerance;
2. To increase youngsters 'knowledge about different cultures/histories/religions;
3. Development of creativity and involvement of young people in civil life through promoting "Erasmus +" opportunities among them;
4. To unite youngsters from different backgrounds, nations, and cultures;
5. To learn how to respect each opinion and break stereotypes through conducting of evaluation and discussion with young people from other countries;
6. To promote good neighborly relations between the EU Member and the non-EU States and to provide space for friendship and relationship through art and culture.

During Youth exchanges the participants will be involved in simulation games, role play games, discussions. They will have cultural evenings in order to present their countries' culture, folk and traditions.

The venue and accommodation

Youth Exchange is organized in Bauska

Address: Hotel "Bērzkalni" 11A, Īslīces parish, Bauska district

The participants will be accommodating in the rooms with 2-3 beds; the toilets are partly in rooms, partly common facilities, with entrance from the corridor of the hotel. Towels, bed-linen is provided.
